FOREWORD

The Senior Class of 1955 present to you this edition of the Arcadian. We hope the pages within this book will bring to your minds many pleasant memories of the year 1954-1955.

DEDICATION

We, the Senior Class of 1955 dedicate this edition of the Arcadian to Mrs. Virginia Wykoff, our class sponsor, and to our parents.

We realize that without their aid and co-operation we could not have succeeded as graduating members of this Senior Class. For their aid and co-operation we now express our sincere thanks.

IN MEMORIAN

In memory of Jane Welty, who died as the result of rheumatic fever on April 30, 1950, during the seventh year of school. Her polite and courteous ways won a place of respect in the hearts of every member in our class.

ANNUAL STAFF

The Seniors in co-operation with the Juniors have successfully published the 1955 Arcadian. This year the staff has had a new sponsor, Mr. Richard Davies.

For the annual sale contest, the grades, five through twelve, were divided among eight teams. The teachers were captains and the seniors were co-captains. The winning team was sponsored by Mrs. Covert with Jim Woodward as co-captain. The three high salesmen, who received free annuals, were Sharon Stall, Jim Woodward, and

CLASS HISTORY

In September, 1943, we met in the First Grade room for the first time. All thirty-eight of us were strangers to one another and so the first day was not as happy as we had expected it to be. However, in a few days time we were the greatest of friends.

As the years rolled along we were always delighted to show our acting ability in assemblies and PTA meetings. Our greatest highlight was the success of the operetta "Peter Rabbit" in which our class participated. In the fifth grade some of our members decided to turn their musical abilities towards band and orchestra. We thought we were quite grown up. Our chance was soon coming to show every one what a fine class we had. This chance was well shown when two members, Mary Steyer and Gertrude Marvin, participated in the school operetta "Christmas in Mexico."

In the first year of high school we elected as class officers the following: President, David Corbin; Vice President, Ruth Ann Smith; Secretary, Barbara Good; Treasurer, Tom Bickel; Reporter, James Woodward, and Student Council Representatives, Betty Fruth and Ronald Stall. As our class motto, we chose, "Today Decides Tomorrow." We decided upon maroon and white as the class colors and the white rose as our class flower. Barbara Good and Janet Shiley represented us as junior high school cheerleaders.

In the ninth grade we split up, with some choosing college preparatory, and others the vocational courses. Mr. Groth was our class sponsor. Many of us joined the different clubs and organizations. Most of us boys were very much interested in athletics, and joined the basketball and football teams. The big event of our freshman year was the Spring Prom.

As sophomores we elected the following class officers: President, David Corbin; Vice President, Tom Bickel; Secretary, Rosann Lenhart; Treasurer, Alan Ryman; Reporter, Gertrude Marvin and Student Council Representatives, Barbara Good and Ronald Stall. This year we had the pleasure of initiating the Freshmen. Also, during the year, two of our members, Barbara Good and Janet Shiley, were elected as high school cheerleaders. Mr. Groth was our sponsor in the Sophomore year.

Our Junior year rolled around very quickly. The year was very busy for us with the choosing of class rings, averaging grades for the Honor Society, presenting the junior play, "So Very Young," and the Christmas play, "The Children of the Inn" and last but not least, entertaining the seniors at the Junior-Senior Banquet held May 15 at the Civic Nic-Nac in Fostoria, Ohio. This year the class officers were: President, David Corbin; Vice President, James Woodward; Secretary, Betty Fruth; Treasurer, Marilyn Walsh; Reporter, Tom Bickel. The Student Council Representatives were Barbara Good and Gerald Marvin. Mr. Groth was again our sponsor. We also helped in the publishing of the "Arcadian."

In the fall of 1954, we entered school for our last wonderful year. Our class officers were: President, David Corbin; Vice President, Tom Bickel; Secretary, Betty Fruth; Treasurer, Marilyn Walsh; Reporter, Ronald Stall. Representing us on the student council were Barbara Good and Gerald Marvin. Mrs. Virginia Wykoff was our class sponsor. The year was filled with many activities. We presented the play "Meet Corliss Archer" as our senior play. This year we were held responsibile for publishing the "Arcadian." We were honored by having ten members on the National Honor Society. We were guests of honor at the Junior-Senior Banquet which was held in Fostoria at the Civic Nic-Nac in May. Baccalaureate services were held on Sunday, May 15. The Rev. Hilliard Camp of Findlay College gave the address at our Commencement Exercises on Friday, May 20.

Now we are standing on the theshold of a big world. What the future holds we do not know; we feel the knowledge and the attitudes acquired during the past twelve years will help us to take our places in that world. If we have done today's task well—we can face tomorrow with greater courage for "Today Decides Tomorrow."

Compliments of FOX DAIRY, Findlay Road, Fostoria, Ohio.

CLASS PROPHECY

As I was sitting for the last time upon the Arcadia stage in my high school career, I was wondering what would become of the class of 1955.

Suddenly, I wasn't on the stage anymore, but in a newspaper office. I was a newspaper reporter in a small town, which consisted of the Arcadia class of "55." This village is called Seniorville, and was incorporated in the spring of 1955. Since this was the tenth birthday of our community, we were putting out a special anniversary edition of our paper. My job was to write about the residents of our community.

First, I interviewed the employees of our hospital. Barbara Good is the Supervisor of Nurses. She says that the hospital has been crowded ever since she hired Betty Fruth as the nurse in charge of taking pulses. Another person employed by this hospital is Janet Shiley. She is still as good at handling needles as she was in her high school days, and she has even added the use of the hypodermic. Rosann Lenhart, Mary Lou Rader, and Bob Noel are in the picture industry. They take X-rays for our hospital. Watch for their new picture release, "The Inside Story."

Because of his training in high school, David Corbin is in politics. He is the mayor of our community.

Jim Woodward is a scientist in his own laboratory. He just made a great discovery—the 101st use of the peanut. He is now using it as a substitute for beans in a bean shooter.

If you have wondered where all those new-fangled hair styles are coming from, the answer is from Ruth Ann Smith and Ruth Arnett. They both have their own beauty salons. Ruth specializes in long hair, while Ruth Ann specializes in short hair.

Rita Grine and Marilyn Walsh take care of the banking business of our community. Their motto is, "Put your money in our hands and you will never have to worry about it again." Another member of this bank is Geraldine King. She takes care of the figures—all sizes, large and small.

Another familiar face which we see going around our community every day is Larry Walsh. He owns and operates a dairy. He has to have a special truck for all the milk Lloyd Thomas gets from his holstein cows. In addition to raising holsteins, Lloyd also sells Allis-Chalmers tractors.

Sonia Schofield has been hired as the private nurse of Dr. Kinsey.

Gerald Marvin owns a farm on the outskirts of our community. I hear he just had quite an addition to his family—fifteen Duroc pigs.

Donna Bame works in the branch of the Ohio Oil Company in our community. After ten years, she has just been appointed head messenger. Gertrude Marvin is also working there as a private secretary.

Bill Diebley is the coach at our school. He has won all his games, except, of course, the ones he lost.

Ray Lazenby has his own business, Excuses, Inc. He specializes in excuses for staying home from school.

Evelyn Miller is using her baby-sitting techniques that she learned in her high school days, on her own five children.

We also have some members of the class of "55' who have not stayed in our village. Among them are Ernestine Rice who is in the waves. She is doing pretty good, she has already had twenty proposals, but is sticking it out for Bill.

Tom Bickel is a senator from Ohio. After he held down the floor for five hours last week, his only comment to the news reporters was, "Give me some throat spray."

Ronald Stall is Liberace's secretary. Besides the other work he has, he also takes care of combing the waves in Liberace's hair and lighting the candles.

CLASS WILL

We, the Seniors of 1955, being of sound mind and body, hereby declare this our last will and testament.

Article I

To the Juniors, we will our quiet ways and modest manners. Do you think it will help?

Article II

To the Sophomores, we will our last place in cafeteria line and the right to attend the Junior-Senior banquet.

Article III

To the Freshmen we will our ability to get to attendance check on time. It's not as easy as you think.

Article IV

Ruth Arnett wills her ability to move around the basketball floor quickly and smoothly to Betty Blue. You'll have to step light, Betty.

Donna Bame wills her blue Ford to her sister, Betty. Donna won't be needing it anyway since Bob got his driver's license back.

Tom Bickel wills his ability to foul out of the basketball games to John Diebley. Now it will be every game instead of every other game.

David Corbin wills his ability to get along with the teachers very well to anyone who needs better grades.

Bill Diebley wills his haircut to Mr. Slough. Now you won't have to keep pushing it back!

Betty Fruth wills her ability to go to school ten out of twelve years without missing a day to Jack Keegan.

Barbara Good wills her beat-up megaphone to anyone who can put it back together again. It's pretty bad.

Rita Grine wills her naturally curly hair to Donna Jacobs. Now you won't have to skip school Donna.

Geraldine King wills her ability to make the car run smoothly to Pat Breyman. Now your car won't "gallop" down the road Pat.

Ray Lazenby wills his ability to roll his car with success to Jerry Woodward. Watch it Jerry.

Rosann Lenhart wills her needle and thread to Delbert Smith. Be sure you make good use of it Delbert.

Gerald Marvin wills his public speaking ability to Max Brooks. The F.F.A. will be sure to win now!

Gertrude Marvin wills her position as editor of the annual to Bill Switzer. But remember Bill, that wasn't a whip she was cracking, it was only her gum.

Evelyn Miller wills her baby-sitting jobs to her sister Rosalie. Keep up the good work!

Bob Noel wills his ability to get excused from study hall to Dennis Peters. It really doesn't take much skill.

Mary Lou Rader wills her lonely nights to Betty Collins. You surely will get lonesome Betty.

Ernestine Rice wills her ability to write love-letters to Janet Etheraton. You better start now, Janet, it takes practice.

Sonia Schofield leaves her lasting devotion to her fiance to Sharyn Peters. Don't use it on too many boys, Sharyn.

Janet Shiley wills her slow-eating habit to Pat Reid who eats like a turkey talks (Gobble-Gobble).

Ruth Ann Smith wills her numerous blushes to Janet Hill. She hopes they won't clash with her hair.

Ronald Stall wills his drum major position to Bob Farrell. Let's have some height now Bob!

Mary Ann Steyer wills her F. H. A. presidency to Gene Switzer. You really have to know how to handle girls, Gene.

Lloyd Thomas wills his bashfulness to Dick Ziessler. Watch out for him girls, he's a changed man.

Larry Walsh wills his seat in English class to anyone who can remember the nominative and objective case pronouns better than he can.

Marilyn Walsh, being treasurer of the Senior class, wills her Senior "mint" to anyone who can pull in that much money.

James Woodward wills his ability to confuse himself and the teachers to anyone who thinks they can do it.

The Senior Class presented their play, "Meet Corliss Archer" on Wednesday evening, November 17, 1954. The play was a three-act comedy in which Corliss Archer shocks the community by making up a diary which describes her father as a habitual drunkard and Dexter Franklin, the next-door neighbor, as a juvenile delinquent. Quite by accident, their visiting Cousin Agnes, reads the diary and exposes her cousin's husband and Corliss' boyfriend.

The cast included Janet Shiley as Corliss Archer; Tom Bickel as Dexter Franklin; Gertrude Marvin as Mrs. Archer; Jim Woodward as Mr. Archer; Barbara Good as Corliss' best friend; Betty Fruth as Louise, the Archer's maid; Sonia Schofield as Cousin Agnes; Donna Bame as Betty, another of Corliss' friends; Gerald Marvin as Doctor James; Mary Ann Steyer as the Nurse; Ruth Arnett as Mrs. Franklin; David Corbin as Mr. Franklin.

JUNIOR PLAY CAST

The Junior Class presented the play "Green Grow The Onions" on March 25, 1955.

The play was a comedy in which seventeen-year-old Tommy Britton sends off his maiden story, "Shakespeare's Onions" to a national magazine. Trouble develops when Tommy's uncle, Thomas Britton, a Pulitzer Prize winning author, arrives for a visit and announces that he has just sent his latest story to the same magazine. The title? You guessed it! From there on in, there's trouble a-plenty. As a would-be genius, Tommy runs hog wild; he mars the beautiful friendship developing between his famous uncle, and his mother's spinster sister; when a check arrives from the publishers, Tommy blithely cashes it, and invites half the teen-agers in town to attend a Super Party. At the play's peak, there's one item after another of bad news for Tommy. At the end, however, with an unexpected assist from Linda, he's back on an even keel, and comparative peace reigns in the Britton home.

The play was under the direction of Mr. Fred Crates, with Jane Van Driest and La Verne Shaull as student directors. The cast was as follows:

OPERETTA

On April 27, the Arcadia High School presented the operetta, "Meet Arizona" under the direction of Mr. Pittenger with Barbara Jane Agnew accompaning all musical numbers. The student directors were Dalores Campbell and Ronald Stall.

The play was centered around the lost will of Colonel Blair whose sudden death left the "Ride 'Em Hard Dude Ranch' without a legal heir. Larry Benson, the adopted child of Colonel Blair, remembers the Colonel mentioning the making of his will and Jack Guldy, the Ranch Manager, doubts that there ever was a will. Lettie Blair, the next of kin, the Colonel's niece from Vermont appears to take over the ranch if no will is found. After much fighting and gay scenes, the will is finally brought to light. Cappy finds it and it tells that the ranch is Lettie's and Larry's if they love and marry without undue outside influence.

The following had principal roles in the operetta: Dalores Campbell, Bill Armbrecht, Janice Heinze, Bill Switzer, Ronald Stall, Donna Wickiser, Pat Breyman, Patsy Conley, Jim Woodward, Dick Ziessler, Sharyn Peters, Gerald Marvin, David Shiley, and Karl Burns.

The first game this season was with McComb here. Although the boys went down to defeat 18-0, they played a very impressive game which showed that we could figure on some good ball playing this year.

The team traveled to Cory-Rawson the next week and lost a very hard fought game with the 1954 county champs 19-6.

The team, which was very determined to beat Liberty, marched off their home gridiron with a very astounding victory score of 52-0.

The next game was lost to Mt. Blanchard 13-6. Mt. Blanchard "mudded" their way to two touchdowns in the last half to win the game.

The boys played Van Buren on the night of our homecoming. We were defeated by a score of 14-0.

In the game with Arlington, the team pulled a surprising victory by defeating Arlington 6-0. This was the first time Arcadia had beaten Arlington in twenty-five years.

Our last game of the season was played at Vanlue. Although the boys played a very progressive game they came home with a defeat 14-6.

The Senior boys on the football team were: Jim Woodward, captain; Bill Diebley, Bob Noel, Ray Lazenby, and Dave Corbin.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

The Arcadia Redskins opened their 15 game schedule with Jackson-Liberty on November 12.

Although the boys had a height disadvantage compared with the other schools, they still came through in fourth place in the county standing. The Redskins almost pulled a major upset when they were leading Cory-Rawson at the end of the third quarter in the tournament game, but Cory-Rawson came back with a strong last quarter and beat us 56-67.

At the end of the season, Bill Diebley was selected by the coaches of the county to the all-county basketball team. His brother, John, received honorable mention.

Seniors who played their last basketball games were Bill Diebley and Tom Bickel.
